

Michael Cronin

Deputy Head of Managing Investments of Operating Funds

Prior to StepStone, Mr. Cronin was with Pomona Capital, where he was responsible for evaluating primary and secondary investments. Before that, Mr. Cronin was with Spectrum Equity, a middle market buyout firm based in Boston, where he specialized in originating and executing direct buyout and growth equity investments in media, entertainment, communications and business services companies. Earlier, he spent two years with Banc of America Securities' industrials investment banking group and served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Nepal.